

Create Your Last Will and Testament in Minutes

If you die without making a valid last will and testament, you will have no control over who your property is distributed to or even who takes care of your minor children following your death. Both of these matters will be determined by state law. Moreover, there is also the added risk that your estate could also be substantially depleted due to the high levels of legal and professional fees associated with the intestate administration of your estate. Making a last will and testament is the only way to ensure that you have control over these matters and that you can properly provide for the needs of your family.

This self help book provides you with step-by-step instructions, detailed information and all the legal forms necessary to make a will and to ensure that your property passes to your loved ones after your death.
